

Chase Great Intro Affiliate Community Agreement

This agreement between Chase Great Enterprises (Company) and _____ (Affiliate) hereby agree to the following terms on this day _____. The terms of this agreement shall last 1 calendar year, then after the continuance of this agreement shall be bonded by the annual renewal fee, please see section III 2.5 of the licensing agreement for dissolution process.

Chase Great Enterprises is a coaching agency that provides applicable strategies and tools to innovators seeking next level success and fulfillment. This agreement states the relationship between the Company and the Affiliate.

Membership Benefits.

The purpose of the community is provide emerging coaching professionals the additional resources, support and training in efforts to assist them to succeed in their personal and professional endeavors. Your community membership provides business building perks for coaches seeking to establish and sustain their brand. Our current benefits are as follows; monthly in-person group mastermind sessions, group support, company trademark access, one-on-one coaching support, Chase Great workspace access, blog post access, discounted training's, workshops, brand exposure and company advancement opportunities.

As a Chase Great Affiliate you will be listed as a Coach and your information will be made available for coaching clients. Coaches will be considered "contractors" and will receive a form 1099 at the end of each tax year. Coaches will receive 60% of all coaching sessions booked through Chase Great Enterprises.

Affiliates have access to Chase Great blog for marketing and exposure. It is highly recommended to submit monthly blog posting regarding topics that are relevant to professional building. Please see virtual learning portal for more info.

Affiliates are to complete thier back office profile to be listed on the Chase Great website as "bookable" by the last month of class. Visit www.chasegreatenterprises.com and click "Coaching Community Membership" in upper right hand corner to complete your Chase Great profile. Coaches are responsible for the maintenance and cosmetics of their profile. We encourage coaches to use videos and photos along with a short biography to attract ideal clients.

Affiliates have 24-7 access to the Chase Great co-working space for private meetings, working time, workshops and trainings. Additional private workspace is available at an additional cost.

Terms.

As a Chase Great Affiliate it your responsibility to utilize the services and content being provided through the community. The community is provided as an additional resource for mentorship and coaching, therefore participation in events, training's, and workshops are highly recommended. Upon completion of the Chase Great Affiliate Certification Training, affiliates are provided access to coaching materials of which is the intellectual property of Chase Great Enterprises.

This agreement will be automatically renewed August 1 of each calendar year. The $99 renewal extends community access and product license usage. Upon dissolution of this agreement a written request must be provided to the Chase Great office. There is a $59 fee assessed upon dissolution and must be settled to prevent additional fee's. The dissolution process will take up to 30 days for completion, please note you will be responsible for concluding month and dissolution fee. completion, please note you will be responsible for concluding month and dissolution fee.

Non-Competition.

As an Affiliate you agree that, during the term of this agreement with the Company and for twelve (12) months after the termination thereof, regardless of the reason for the membership termination, you will not, directly or indirectly, anywhere in the Territory, on behalf of any Competitive Business perform the same or substantially the same duties listed, practiced, displayed in this agreement or duties set forth by the company.

The Chase Great Affiliate Community is designed for growing and established business and corporate leaders who are looking to enhance their current career in leadership. The Company will provide trainings, seminars, and self-development workshops and content to the Affiliate community to ensure effectiveness.

Membership Eligibility Authority.

- By using the Affiliate Community Membership Benefits, you represent and warrant that you are (a) a Member of Chase Great Enterprises Affiliate (b) at least eighteen (18) years of age; (c) otherwise recognized as being able to form legally binding contracts under applicable law; (d) are not a person barred from purchasing or receiving any of the Membership Benefits found under the laws of the United States; and (e) located in the United States.
- You understand Chase Great serves as a coaching platform for individuals seeking further development in public speaking, specialty coaching, and leadership training.
- You understand you are to use the resources provided by Chase Great Enterprises to build your coaching business and no other commitments shall be entered unless otherwise agreed.
- You understand this is a 12-month commitment.
- You understand by agreeing to this commitment we recommend you reframe from cross coaching with any other coaching entity or individual coach who provides similar coaching structure to Chase Great Enterprises, LLC during your 12-month commitment.
- You understand by selecting a commitment level below the amount selected will be automatically withdrawn from the account you've placed on file monthly on the date initiated.
- You understand your commitment level is renewed monthly and it is your responsibility to ensure your monthly renewal is available by your financial institution by your due date.
- You understand Chase Great Enterprises will make 2 attempts to retrieve your monthly commitment. If we are unable to retrieve your payment after the 3rd attempt, you will be required to manually settle balance. There is a $10.00 late fee assessed to all payments retrieved manually.
- You understand you have 3 business days concluding the final attempt to complete your commitment. If payment is not received your commitment will be suspended. To reinstate your commitment within 30 days your payment(s) x 2 will be required.
- You understand commitment levels suspended past 59 days will be terminated.
- You understand if a force termination occurs you are responsible for the $59 dissolution fee plus the lapsed membership fee.

- You understand the commitment to the community is a resource for your coaching business and does not guarantee paid clients.
- You understand upon dissolution of this agreement you cannot use any materials, content, or vision development strategies provided to develop personal business by Chase Great Enterprises, LLC for 12 consecutive months.
- You understand upon dissolution there is a $59.00 fee due upon submission of dissolution agreement.
- You understand if this agreement is breached Chase Great Enterprises has the right to lawfully settle all disputes.
- You understand services renew every 30 days and cannot be combined.
- You understand you are responsible for the usage of your services, coaching sessions, office and template access.
- You understand Chase Great Enterprises is not responsible for generating clients on your behalf, however you will be listed as coach on Chase Great marketing.
- You understand by signing this agreement you will automatically be renewed yearly on August 1 at a $99 renewal fee unless stated otherwise.
- You understand the benefits provided in the commitment cannot be shared or combined with any other Chase Great Affiliate or individual that is not a Chase Great™ Affiliate.
- You understand your monthly commitment will be automatically deducted from your account on the same day every month.
- You understand the literature, contracts, content and information provided by the commitment level selected All Rights Reserved by Chase Great Enterprises dba Chase Great Coaching Institute and cannot be duplicated or shared with or by anyone that is not a Chase Great Affiliate.
- You understand the information shared by the commitment level is confidential information and should not be shared with anyone that is not a Chase Great Affiliate.
- You understand the terms of this agreement can be revised by Chase Great Enterprises, LLC and all committed levels will be notified by email of all revisions and changes that directly affects the committed.

Payment Agreement:

All balances must be completed prior to the completion of this course. Payment installments are automatically withdrawn from the financial institution listed in the agreement. You agree to the payment of this agreement and understand payments are non-refundable, but transferrable within 30 days. You are currently enrolled in the payment agreement plan for; Intro to Coaching | Advanced Coaching | Premium Access plan. Your payment of _____ will be automatically withdrawn from your account (bi-weekly / monthly) in the amount of $_____ beginning _____ and ending _____. Payments are subject to a $10.00 late fee.

Except Premium Access enrollment, your affiliate fee will become active on the first day of the last month of class.

Disclaimer:

Your credit/debit card will be placed on file for 12 consecutive months and will require renewal August 1. Your card will not be charged outside of the agreement listed. We respect the confidential information of every coach and will not share your information with any third experience institutions, creditors, or companies not related to Chase Great Enterprises, LLC. Your card will be automatically charged for the commitment level selected on the date agreed of every month. Chase Great Enterprises, LLC will make 2 attempts to collect monthly commitment. Please be sure to have funds available to avoid institution fees. If payments are not retrieved from the account listed, you are responsible for completing your monthly commitment. There will be a $10.00 fee assessed to all payments accepted inside of the office. Please be sure to contact our office for any changes or updates to the card information placed on file.

12 Month Commitment Includes:

- Monthly Mastermind Sessions with Executive Coaches
- Group Support
- Company Trademark Access
- Weekly Group Coaching
- Community Access
- Chase Great Co-Worker Space access
- Discounted Training's and products
- Potential client expansion and brand exposure
- Agreement Templates and Support
- Public Speaking Support
- Chase Great Blog Contributor

Last Name	Middle Initial	First Name
-----------	----------------	------------

Address	City,	State	Zip
---------	-------	-------	-----

Contact Number	Alternate Contact Number
----------------	--------------------------

In case of Emergency	Contact Number	Relationship
----------------------	----------------	--------------

I've read and understand the terms listed above. I agree to allow Chase Great Enterprises and its coaching affiliates to work closely with me to build my purpose-driven coaching business.

I understand my community commitment becomes active the final day of class and my $99 monthly fee will be automatically removed from my financial institution.

Signature: _____ Date: _____